Greater expansion by localising our pan-African commitment.

Translating our responsive service into holistic customer-centricity

Clients have rated our 'High levels of responsiveness' in service delivery very highly. As a result, Continental Re's customer management is admired and well respected. Our strategy aims to continually deepen this competency through uniform brand behaviours. The aim is to continually develop employees as brand ambassadors and equip them to build even greater and more customer-centric relationships.

OUR VALUES:	Commitment	Responsiveness	Sustainability	Trust
our Behaviours:	Collective passion and commitment to the industry	High responsiveness in service, dependability and building of capability	Realising ambitious, sustainable and relevant offerings	Putting customers first by building relationships via localisation

The virtuous circle

Continental Re is recognised by the industry as the credible, private-sector player, able to translate our commitment to the long-term prospects of pan-African reinsurance into value. It is our combination of pan-African commitment and associated localisation that creates responsible and dynamic impact in local markets – for the benefit of our clients, stakeholders and communities.

Our authentic pan-African purpose differentiates our brand from the competitors. It fuels our entrepreneurship through a virtuous circle designed to capture market opportunities and address the challenges the industry faces.
